Welcome Message

OGSOS (Obstetric and Gynaecological Society of Salem), founded in 1989, has seen a tremendous growth, owing to the visionary efforts of our seniors and the enthusiastic involvement of its members. 35 years after its inception, we have evolved and grown, proudly standing here today as one big family with nearly 300 members, having set high academic standards and won numerous awards.

Keeping up with this caliber, we take pride in inviting you all to the Annual Conference of OGSOS – “Salem OG Summit”, the theme rightly being ‘Explore the less explored – from Novice to Nouveau’ as we aspire to hone our basic skills, update the current trends and get to know what the future holds to aid our day to day clinical practice.

We are committed and keen in providing distinctive academic sessions, impeccable hospitality, scrumptious food and delightful entertainment – an overall memorable experience!

We look forward in welcoming and hosting you all at Salem!

Host City Information

Salem

Salem is the fourth largest city in Tamil Nadu. The city is surrounded by hills. In fact, the name Salem is derived from the word "Salam" meaning an area surrounded by mountains. Salem is also known as the "Steel City" and "Mango City". The history of Salem dates back to the third century B.C. The city was a part of the Pandya, Pallava, and Vijayanagara Empires. After the defeat of Tipu Sultan in the Third Anglo-Mysore War in 1792, the State of Mysore's border was re-aligned, and the British formed the Salem district under Madras Presidency. Numerous forts and temples in the city date back to a previous era. Salem is a Geologist's paradise and is rich in a variety of important minerals like Magnesite, Dunite, Bauxite, Limestone, Iron ore, Quartz, Feldspar Soapstone, Granites, etc. As a district, Salem has its significance in various aspects. Salem is one of the major producers of traditional silver anklets, which are popular among women. Salem is a major textile center in Tamil Nadu and also houses a number of sago factories.

Places to Visit

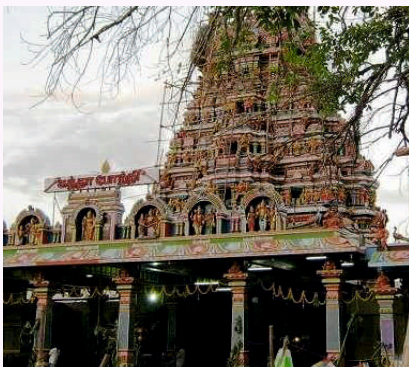

1008 Lingam Temple – See one of Tamil Nadu's Oldest Shrines

We are sure that almost every Hindu of this country, especially a devotee of Lord Shiva will be aware of this temple in Salem. This temple is dedicated to Lord Shiva and is among the best tourist places in South India. There are 1008 Lingas together in the temple. 1007 Lingas are placed around one huge Linga. This huge Linga is of Nandi, the cow.

Timings : 9:00 am to 6:00 pm

Sri Rajaganapathi Temple

The Rajaganapathi Temple is located in Salem and is dedicated to God Rajaganapathi. The temple is believed to have been constructed 400 years ago. Kings considered God Vinayaka as a force that would defend them from evil. Since the region was hilly with forests, it was then known as Shaila Desam. The famous Sugavaneswarar temple is situated very close to this temple. The temple is about 2 km away from the Salem bus stand and it is nearer to Sugavaneswarar Temple.

Location : Mariappan Nagar, Salem, Tamil Nadu 636003

Timings : 6:00 am to 10:30 pm

Mettur Dam

The Mettur Dam is one of the largest dams in India and also the largest in Tamil Nadu, located across the river Kaveri where it enters the plains. Built in 1934, it took 9 years to complete. Maximum height and width of the dam are 214 and 171 feet, respectively. The dam receives inflows from its own catchment area, Kabini Dam and Krishna Raja Sagara Dams located in Karnataka. There is a park at the base of the dam called Ellis Park maintained by the Tamil Nadu Public Works Department.

Location : 60 km from Salem

Entry fee : None

Timings : 9:00 am to 6:00 pm

Mookaneri Lake – Go Boating

This is one of the most beautiful lakes that one can find in Tamil Nadu. The city to Salem is blessed for being the home to such a beautiful water body. This lake is spread in an area of 58 acres. It was earlier spread in 39 hectares, but a lot of money was spent on it in the year 2012 for the reconstruction. This picturesque location is the home of a variety of birds and flora.
